Chocolatier

Nicole Patel is the proprietor of and chocolatier for Delysia Chocolatier. In 2006 while pregnant with her first son, Nicole made a batch of homemade chocolate truffles as last-minute holiday gifts. To the delight of friends and family, she continued to create chocolate treats as a way to relieve stress from her corporate engineering job. In 2008, a chance trip to Becker Vineyards in the Texas Hill Country led to Nicole being the first in Texas to make truffles using local wines. Within five years, what started as a hobby turned Delysia into one of the Top Ten Chocolatiers in the U.S., as selected by the International Chocolate Salon and Taste TV.

Nicole Patel graduated from Texas A&M University with both Bachelor of Science and Master of Engineering degrees in Industrial Engineering, with a focus in statistics and process efficiency. Upon graduation, she worked for a technology and communication Fortune 100 company in Austin, Texas as a supply chain and business process improvement expert. Nicole continued to develop her career, receiving her Six Sigma Master Black Belt certification. In her command of the corporate Six Sigma program, Nicole was responsible for program development and training for a privately held technology company in Austin through the summer of 2009.

Nicole lives in Austin, Texas with her husband Rahul and their two sons, Sébastien and Colin.

Press

Delysia Chocolatier has been featured in a wide array of media, including national magazines, bridal publications, and lifestyle sites.

Wine Spectator showcased our truffles stating, “[The wine truffles are] balanced; the wine is there, but does not dominate. The chocolate is sweet and good.” Our first international print exposure came on the “We Heart Details” section of U.K. Brides magazine, making Delysia the only non-European company on those pages. Our ghost pepper bark appeared in WSJ's MarketWatch as a “chocolate-outside-the-box” Valentine’s Day gift, and Nicole’s transition from engineer to chocolatier was highlighted in American Profile.

Partnerships

Partnering with Delysia allows you to create chocolate that is personalized for your business. Select from our wide assortment of flavors or work with us to develop a unique flavor with your product. In addition, our chocolates can be visually customized with personalized designs.

One of our specialties is creating chocolate using the rich flavors of wine. Our relationships with Becker Vineyards, Lange Twins Family Winery, Terra de Oro, and Graham's Six Grapes have produced truly exceptional truffles. We love working with distinctive companies – like Con' Olio Oils & Vinegars and Franklin Barbecue – to incorporate their products into a special line of chocolate creations.

We are passionate about discovering unexpected, yet perfectly paired flavors. We created truffles utilizing The Salt Lick BBQ's famous barbecue sauce. Our award-winning dry rub bark blends The Salt Lick's dry rub – the same dry rub used on their brisket and ribs – with bittersweet chocolate, offering a sweet but spicy finish.

Corporate

Delysia Chocolatier offers fully-customizable products to make your event or corporate gift unforgettable. We can put your corporate identity on our chocolate blocks and truffles for a keepsake that is as unique as it is delicious.

Delysia's custom products include four-ounce or twelve-ounce molded chocolate blocks and custom two-piece, nine-piece or 25-piece truffle sets. We work with you to create an exquisite flavor collection to make these truffles uniquely yours. For the Circuit of the Americas inaugural race, we blended local sweet tea vodka and orange peel to create a collection specifically for the COTA luxury-box patrons.

Truffles and chocolate blocks featuring your brand identity are ideal as end-of-the-year thank you gifts or as favors for company galas, gatherings, and award ceremonies. We have made chocolate gifts for brands ranging from technology (SecureLink, BazaarVoice) to healthcare (TP Ortho) to accounting (Deloitte) to charitable organizations (Mack, Jack & McConaughey, Kids In A New Groove). We'd be happy to create something special that captures the essence of your brand and gives your colleagues a remarkable reminder of who you are and what you do.
